RIESEL WARNS OF 'HOOD' CONTROL

By PEYTON CANARY

Victor Riesel, veteran labor reporter who was blinded in April, 1956, when an unidentified assailant tossed acid in his face, told more than 1,100 people at the Desert Dinner Club meeting in the Riviera Hotel last night that insistence on local and state law enforcement is the best defense against a rising threat of underworld "second government" domination.

"Don't lose by default," Riesel pleaded in climaxing an hour long review of brute force in labor organizations.

RIESEL CHARGED Americans generally have developed both tolerance and cynicism concerning the hoodlum element in labor and politics. "The breakdown in law and order... results in a force parallel to the force which took the Fascists to power," Riesel said.

Reviewing the rise of Mussolini's Blackshirts, Hitler's Brownshirts, and the overthrow of democratic government in Russia in 1918 by Lenin, Riesel said "the jargon of the proletariat, coupled with the brute force of the gangster elements of the nations, was used every time in the push to power."

JAMES HOFFA, president of 1,600,000 strong Teamsters union, has made "the great bid for personal power in the nation," Riesel said. Hoffa has the "nucleus of a Fascist state" in existence, Riesel said, with Teamster leadership which includes "robbers, thieves, burglars, extortionists, dope peddlers, white slavers, and murderers," in the words of the McClelland Senate committee.

California Director of the Department of Natural Resources DeWitt Nelson in Sacramento today announced that they had sent a proposed agreement to the Tramway Authority for the purchase of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority.

After the contract has been studied by the Authority, a meeting will be held between members of the Authority and Nelson, at which time any problems will be ironed out.

Market Burglary Suspect Sought

Law enforcement agencies throughout Southern California have been asked to apprehend Robert Faye, 30, wanted for questioning in a series of market burglaries throughout Southern California — including two here.

In custody in Palm Springs and scheduled for arraignment today on burglary charges is 25-year-old John Delbert Ellis, an unemployed carpenter from Los Angeles.

Detective sergeant Johnny Herrera said that Ellis will be charged with burglary at Hatchitt's Market.

ELLIS FAILED to gain entry into the place, but officers charge he had punched a hole approximately a foot in diameter into the roof of the market office.

The suspect left the store, and was at the northwest side of the market, under surveillance by a plain-clothes officer, when apprehended.

Sgt. Herrera said that a satchel full of tools allegedly belonging to Ellis were found over the store office.

FINGERPRINTS TAKEN from tools, and footprints in the area matched those of the suspect, he said.

Det. Lt. Robert White said today the technique used at the Hatchitt's Market burglary was identical to the burglary last month of the Ranch Mart. It was also similar to that used in a score of other Southland market burglaries over the past four months.

Lt. White said that investigation has led local officers to believe that the two suspects were accompanied on their burglaries by two girls, as yet unidentified.

The satchel of tools, found on the roof of Hatchitt's store, contained just about every tool that could be used by a burglar, including electric drills, pries, screwdrivers, hammers, files, saws and crow-bars.

Primaries Slated Today in 4 States, Nation's Capital

By United Press International
Voters in four states and the nation's capital ballot today in a series of primaries highlighted by a presidential popularity contest in Indiana between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The presidential races are the main contests in Indiana, Ohio and the District of Columbia.

ALABAMA CHOOSES between Democratic electors pledged to support the party's presidential and states rights electors who have promised to vote only for candidates they consider sympathetic to the South.

In Florida, voters will indicate their choices for governor, two members of the U.S. House of Representatives, six state officers and a flock of local officials.

KENNEDY, SEEKING 34 Democratic convention delegate votes, and Nixon, after 32 GOP votes, had only taken opposition in their separate party races in Indiana. The big question was who would draw the most votes. Delegates were pledged to support the winners on the first ballot at the conventions.

Kennedy predicted he would roll up the highest total. Nixon said he would consider he did well if he polled half the votes. He conceded he might receive as few as 42 per cent.

THE DEMOCRATIC and Republican state chairmen each predicted the opposition candidate would win. Most political observers felt Kennedy would come out ahead because local contests would bring more Democrats to the polls.

In Ohio, Kennedy was assured of the state's 64 Democratic convention votes. Voters will choose between rival delegate slates headed by Gov. Michael V. Di Salle and Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Ray T. Miller Sr. Both slates were pledged to Kennedy.

CHESSMAN DEATH SPURS ABOLITION

SACRAMENTO — A wish of martyrdom today threatened to eliminate the gas chamber that killed Caryl Chessman as a worldwide wave of criticism of the United States for "cruel" and "inhuman" punishment.

The infamous Red Light Bandit himself said months ago that his death would do more towards ending the death penalty in California than to remain living.

MONDAY, JUST before he walked the 13 steps into the eight-sided gas chamber, he told a prison official, "I hope my going into the chamber will help blow the room right out of existence."

No sooner had the shock of Chessman's convulsive death begun than state legislators renewed their demands to end capital punishment. One said he would introduce the issue again in the 1961 session of the Legislature.

GEORGE DAVIS, one of Chessman's attorneys, said he planned to devote most of his time to get the issue directly before the voters by the initiative process.

Deputy Secretary of State Walter Stutler said Davis and an anti-death penalty group named "People Against Capital Punishment Inc." had until June 30 to get 420,462 signatures on petitions to place the issue on the November general election ballot.

GOV. EDMUND G. BROWN issued a formal statement after Chessman's execution reasserting his personal opposition to the death penalty.

"I regret equally every execution in California, past and future, including the one today. My personal opposition to capital punishment remains as profound as ever."

MEANWHILE, ACROSS the world, the death of Chessman resulted in mobbing of U. S. embassies, picketing of American institutions and assault of U. S. law as "cruel" or "inhuman."

Some of the incidents included:
— French-born American John Laurent said in Rome that he will renounce his U. S. citizenship because of the execution.

— A bomb was reported planted in the U. S. Embassy at Copenhagen but a search failed to locate it.

— SWEDEN'S LARGEST newspaper, the Expressen, called Chessman's death "legalized murder by the State of California" and England's respected Manchester Guardian said the execution was "an outrage."

— Windows were broken in U. S. embassies at Lisbon, Portugal, and Montevideo, Uruguay.

Persons interested in the welfare of animals are urged to bring any good clothing or other articles for which they have no further use to the Shelter.

Thermal Farmer Held in Assault Of Ranch Hand

"THERMAL" — A 61-year-old farm laborer was hospitalized last night after he was beaten with a claw hammer by his employer, Indio sheriff's office reported today.

LeRoy Ernest Whitworth, transient, living in Tamarisk, half mile from Highway 111 on Avenue 56 here, was treated for a cut on the left side of his face, two cuts on the head, and a broken rib at Casita Hospital, deputies said.

John Austin Gaither, 36, of 82-261 Kohell Avenue, Apartment 15, Thermal, was booked by deputies on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, the deputies reported.

Court of Appeals Has Hoffa Case

WASHINGTON — James R. Hoffa's future as president of the Teamsters Union today was in the hands of the U. S. Court of Appeals.

The appellate court decided a 2-1 verdict Monday to delay Hoffa's trial—originally set to begin this morning—until it could rule on a variety of issues in the tangled teamster-monitor case.

April Building Tops $1-Million

Palm Springs enjoyed another million dollar building month in April — $1,405,425 — but it ran against the record breaking month of last year — $2,848,650 — and threw the year's total behind for the first time this year.

PERMITS ISSUED by the city building department have a valuation of $3,311,875 for the first four months of 1960, compared to $6,292,826 for the same period in 1959.

Democrat Leaders Fire Countercharge At Chief Executive

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower appealed anew today for unredacted foreign aid funds, but his request ran into an immediate blockade in the House where a key member promised a $1,500,000 slash.

The President, who took his aid plea to the country Monday night, renewed it today in a special message to Congress outlining urgent legislation he hopes will be enacted before Congress quits for the year.

MOMENTS AFTER THE President's message was received in the House, Chairman Otto E. Passman (D-La.) of an appropriations subcommittee handling aid funds rejected the plea.

He told House members if the President knew all the facts he would support a cut of $1,500,000 in his request for $4,175,000, 000 to finance the aid program in the 12 months starting July 1.

PASSMAN TOLD the House the trouble with the program now is not too little money but too much. He said if Eisenhower would give him an hour to discuss it the President would support Passman's position.

Eisenhower, in a broadcast appeal to the nation, said heavy cuts in his aid request would deal a "crushing defeat" to the Free World and lead to grave new international tensions.

THE PRESIDENT charged that Democrats in the House were making a "political issue" of his foreign aid plan.

Democratic leaders promptly fired back that Eisenhower himself was making a political issue out of the business before Congress. They gave short shrift to his contention that some pending Democratic proposals were over costly while the administration's were prudent.

SPEAKER SAM RAYBURN and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson both said it was the President, rather than congressional Democrats, who was doing legislative electioneering.

Adano Trial Set For June 27

INDIO — A jury trial for Palm Springs entertainer Bobby Adano has been set for 9:30 a.m. June 27 in Indio Superior Court.

Judge Hilton McCabe set the trial date today after Adano pled innocent to a charge of narcotics possession.

John Morgan, attorney for Adano substituting for Russell Parsons, asked that the trial date be set that far ahead because of Parsons' schedule.

Major share of the April total, with 63 permits having a valuation of $621,000.

OTHER PERMITS issued were:
Two apartments, 28 units, $162,000; 28 dwelling apartments, $283,000; 29 dwelling additions and alterations, $34,325; 19 swimming pools, $62,900; three new commercial, $25,000.

One trailer park building, $12,000; four trailer additions, $1,700; one church addition, $600; four commercial additions, $2,200; one hotel addition, $700.

UCLA FRATERNITY RAIDED, JAILED FOR DIRTY MOVIES

LOS ANGELES — UP — A group of UCLA fraternity boys muffed a kindly chance to avoid arrest Saturday night on charges of watching lewd movies.

Officers telephoned the Alpha Sigma Phi House and told the fraternity members they had heard a stag show was in progress. Officers warned the boys to turn off their motion picture projector and put away the playing cards.

About 30 minutes later officers drove, found the movies and card game still going on and arrested 24 students. Five other students scuttled out windows and fled.

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband has personality plus. All the women make a fuss over him and he eats it up. He's a good-looking and doesn't show his age (49). I am 47 and nothing special. Albert bowls with a mixed group from work. I can't bowl because I have a bad back. The bowlers had their pictures taken in a group. Wives with husbands, friends with friends etc. But Albert was the only one in the picture holding a girl (young, pretty and single) on his lap. This picture got in the local paper, and the bowling alley even put it up on the bulletin board. Everyone I know saw the picture and laughed about it. Plenty of remarks were passed. How would you take this, Abby?

BOWLER'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: I'd try to take it like a good sport. Your husband is at the dangerous age. Help him stay out of trouble by keeping an eye on him. If he needs constant reassurance that he's desirable—reassure him. If you can't bowl, go along and keep score. (At least that way you'll know what the score is.)

DEAR ABBY: I am one of four children. Ellen is 17, Muriel is 15 and I am Shirley, 13. Our baby brother is 3 and he is our problem. Our mother tells everybody that she has three built-in baby-sitters and she means it, too. She doesn't realize that we girls have things to do and can't be chasing after the baby every evening after school and on weekends. We can't make any plans because she depends on us to watch the baby. Don't you think she could hire a sitter and let us live our own lives? If she paid us the regular sitters' rate we wouldn't mind helping her out.

BUILT-IN SITTERS
DEAR BUILT: Come now... with three young ladies in the home your mother shouldn't have to hire sitters. Surely each of you is able to help out once or twice a week. The experience will come in handy. And it should be a privilege to repay your mother for the hundreds of little favors she has done for you. Shame on you! P.S. And if your sisters feel the same—triple shame!

CONFIDENTIAL TO JOEL AND STEVE: Why look for beer when you have champagne in your refrigerator?

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

SEVENTEEN CHILDREN OF THE HOUSE of Hope Orphanage near Tijuana are shown near the main entrance to the volunteer home with Mark Musgrave, La Mesa, a retired government conservationist who helped bring the orphanage to the attention of Palm Springs residents; Mrs. M. TIJUANA ORPHANS GET HELPING HAND

Palm Springs residents donated approximately two and a half tons of food to children in the House of Hope Orphanage south of Tijuana during the recent drive conducted by Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Ades, and Miss Eve Russell, with the cooperation of local service clubs.

In addition to food a washing machine and a refrigerator were donated, plus some clothing, and lumber pieces from Woodcraft of California.

"WE WANT TO THANK all the excellent people who joined the almost overwhelming response," said Mrs. Ades. She told The Desert Sun that Mrs. Maria Bringas, founder and director of the Casa De La Esperanza—the House of Hope—termed the needed food a "God-send."

But the project for the aid of the orphans near Tijuana is now being planned as a continuing activity, to prevent the feast-and-famine tendency of past months. With more than 40 children to care for, the average per capita cost should amount to approximately $20 monthly.

"OF COURSE, THE orphanage hasn't had even an appreciable fraction of that kind of support in the past," Mrs. Ades reported. Buildings for the orphanage were donated by the state government of Baja California, utilizing buildings confiscated from illegal operations. But no maintenance funds or school or child support is given the orphanage by the Mexican government—state or federal.

"The school needs bunk beds because some of the youngsters now sleep two to a bed. It needs bedclothes, a freezer—we hate to ask anyone or a group for such a large gift—but the need is there, to allow use of gifts of perishable meats, fruits, and vegetables; and of course, a continuing source of food," Mrs. Ades stated.

THOUGH THE SCHOOL now cares for more than 40 children, it could have an enrollment of hundreds of children, if the facilities for caring for them were available. Physical limitations of the plant, and the physical limitations of food, clothing, and the adults who care for and love the children are determining factors in the size.

On Concealed Weapons

(EDITOR'S NOTE: J. Edgar Hoover, director of Federal Bureau of Investigation, in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin for April, issued an appeal for strict enforcement of the law concerning concealed weapons, and more severe penalties. His article is reprinted below.)

Juvenile "rumbles," vengeful underworld slayings, and daily violence are a blight upon our Nation's morals.

Tragically, the fist fights of yesterday between young brawlers on the street corners have turned into shooting, knife-slashing, bloody battles which leave the bodies of youthful gang members crumpled in the gutters and alleys.

It has become almost commonplace also to read in the newspapers of everyday citizens who have fallen victims to concealed weapons drawn by hoodlums in fits of anger, drunkenness, bravado, or greed. Many swaggering racketeers consider a hidden gun to be part of their role as "tough guys," and too many hoodlums throughout every level of the underworld attempt to mimic their "big brothers" of crime by sneering at laws prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons. These cowardly wielders of death-dealing instruments constitute a real menace to unsuspecting, law-abiding citizens.

The appalling number of murders, robberies, aggravated assaults and other crimes of violence committed daily in this country are an index to the number of deadly weapons which are carried by criminals and irresponsible, unauthorized individuals.

A typical case recently came to my attention. A man in a southwestern state was arrested for drunkenness and carrying a pistol. He was fined $100 and costs. Some time later he drew another concealed weapon, a knife, and stabbed to death a person with whom he was arguing. Convicted of murder, he was sentenced to a five-year prison term, but was released in 30 months. One week after being released, he drew a concealed .32 caliber automatic pistol and shot to death his second victim. In explaining why he was carrying a gun, he cold-bloodedly stated, "I don't like being pushed around." "Powder-puff" treatment in the courts in two instances had done nothing to affect this killer's attitude toward law and the preciousness of human life.

If, in this day of violence and sudden death, we can remove at least one cause of such tragedies, we can take a giant stride forward in eliminating this menace from the American scene. Not until we have stringent enforcement of the laws relating to the unauthorized carrying of concealed weapons by persons with evil intent and realistic prison terms meted out by the courts will we see the terror in our streets diminish. The time for insignificant fines and the mere confiscation of weapons as punishment for carrying concealed instruments of death is past. Criminals and others who would live by the gun smirk at small fines as merely a token price for the "privilege" of carrying a concealed weapon.

It is time to decide whether we will surrender to wanton lawlessness or whether we will stand resolutely for law and order.

Cuba Today---Tomorrow?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Are we really being silly about Reds if we suspect that there's Communism in those Southern sit-downs?

Last month I sat in the press gallery and heard a Senator making a strong speech for Civil Rights, ending with a recitation of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," and its deathless refrain: "His truth goes marching on."

It was very dramatic and touching, but later I read the following editorial passage from the N. Y. Communist newspaper, The Worker, for April 24, 1960:

"And in our country, from Birmingham to Richmond, from Miami to Dallas, the welkin rings with a new song of freedom as the Negro people carry forward Democracy's banner in militant masses against the Dixiecrat segregationist-State regimes. The truth of our time is revealed in the life and works of Lenin. His truth goes marching on!"

We are in a strange period of tolerance toward Communism. It struck me in reading a recent biography of Moliere that here was a clue. The French master, a great spoofer about human foibles, had a lot of fun with his title character, "The Imaginary Invalid" — some of which could be applied by transference from people to nations.

A country, like an individual, can become the victim of quacks who prescribe useless pills and ludicrous treatments for phony ills.

IT MAY WELL BE that the cries of "Socialism" and "Communism" — together with drastic countermeasures — have sometimes been used to frighten the USA with false alarms and into bogus remedies. Surely it is true that public reaction against exaggerated alarms and extreme precautions set in almost as soon as President Eisenhower went to the White House.

Part of the Father Image complex, which is charged against like and the American people, can be found in over calmness where there once was overexcitement about Communism. Nobody is apt to forget how Senator Joe McCarthy's fortunes turned downward, and eventually went under, as the Eisenhower Administration found its legs.

AS RECENTLY AS last week in New Jersey, Robert Morris was not able to shake off the Communism-in-everything label, or to dissociate himself from an alleged guilt-by-association with McCarthyism. This old tag was, I think, the decisive difference between Robert Morris and Senator Clifford Case. Although Morris had other qualifications for the Senate and although he was "cleared," he had no valid excuse. Case, by the clear vote of registered Republicans, was the better man.

But this Jersey primary demonstrated the American pendulum-swinging behavior — from Reds everywhere to Reds nowhere. It is a dangerous complacency. It ought to be strongly queried, challenged and examined.

EARLY LAST YEAR, how many American writers dared say — or how many Americans were open-minded enough to believe — that the anti-Batista Revolution in Cuba had Communist colorations? What? Blame it on the Reds? Connect this liberalizing movement, headed by "Doctor"

Fidel Castro, with Moscow and Peking? But today these ideas are neither shameful nor absurd.

And this time next year? What will we say about these Negro sit-downs at stores and restaurants all over the South? The country seemed incredulous the other day when former President Truman remarked at Ithaca, (N.Y.) that the highly organized sit-down movement might be "engineered" by Reds. Had people heard aright? This — from Harry Truman?

BUT IT IS TIME that many American leaders, including the Presidential candidates, took note of the sinister similarities between Cuba and the Southern States. The "underprivileged" are being regimented in towering numbers. They are being coached in extralegal tactics, as "non-violent" as possible to avoid giving general alarm.

The existing local government of the South, as was true in Cuba, is being demeaned by propaganda. The keepers of law and order in the Southern States are being deserted by the faint-hearted, the nitwitted, by the fools who puff their vanity by being for underdogs and by the egocentric politicians who will "do anything" for votes.

WHAT IS WORSE, good people who don't want to become "imaginary invalids" about the Communist virus, won't believe that Khrushchev and Chou have any interest in disrupting the social, economic, cultural and governmental structure of almost one-fifth of the American States. Well, this complacency doesn't make anybody pro-Communist — but it often makes us sitting ducks for those who are.

'A Few Billion Extra for Built-in Health Care'

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

For many a month You've heard me bleat The need for another North-South street.

Therefore, that news item in The Desert Sun last Wednesday detailing plans for a new Desert Inn to rise on the site of the city's first hostelry, was of especial interest.

BECAUSE the plans as outlined in the article revealed that Messrs. Samuel Ficks and George Alexander, new owners of the famous hotel, included the putting through of Belardo Road, which is now interrupted by the hotel grounds.

That will provide a third major north-south street in the downtown area, something that, with the rapid growth of Palm Springs, is a vital need.

WHEN PALM SPRINGS was first laid out by the original developers, they plotted four north and south streets.

One was never built, another was built in two sections but not continuous, a third was just a dusty sand street and for a long time we had one major north-south street.

Then the dusty, sandy road was made into a major four-lane thoroughfare — Indian Avenue — which carries more traffic now than the original main drag — Palm Canyon Drive.

THESE TWO streets carry all of our north-south traffic which has long ago outgrown them. The addition of Belardo Road as a through street will help relieve the downtown congestion.

Now, perhaps, how about another dicker with the Indians and the fashioning of El Segundo, which now runs from Alejo to Ramon, into another major north-south thoroughfare?

We'd really be fixed to take care of our growing traffic. For a few years, at least.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION of much interest was that concerning parking. With the building of a huge 1,600-car parking lot in the center of town, metered by the city, it was proposed that parking on the Drive, in the center of town, at least, be banned.

In that way, the Drive could be made into a four-lane thoroughfare to handle the growing traffic.

I THINK parking and traffic on our outgrown streets are two major problems and something is going to have to give.

Every suggested solution deserves close scrutiny. And, while about it, after we get some north and south streets, how about a bridge across Tahquitz Channel?

Many of the objections to the proposed Freeway were based on the fact that it would "divide the town."

Have we any sharper dividing obstacle than the mile-long uncrossed stretch of Tahquitz Channel?

MIGHT AS WELL pour it on. How about traffic lights at the McCallum-Tahquitz Road intersection at Indian? Ramon and Indian, the Y, Ramon and Sunrise, Sunrise and McCallum, El Cielo and Tahquitz?

We're getting so big we're going to have 'em soon.

STAN DELAPLANE:

French Quarter

We had coffee this morning in the old French Market in New Orleans. Alongside the Mississippi where Andrew Jackson looks stonily from the lush park that was once the French and Spanish center of town.

"What do we want with this vast, worthless area?" said Daniel Webster when the United States made the Louisiana Purchase. (The price was $15 million. Besides New Orleans, Napoleon threw in the whole Mississippi valley and the tributaries.)

"WHAT DO WE want with this vast, worthless area, of this region of savages and wild beasts, of shifting sands and whirlwinds, of dust, of cactus and prairie dogs."

Naturally, Daniel could not foresee that one day you could get $5.34 an ounce for rifle whiskey on Bourbon Street.

THE SPRING FESTIVAL is on in New Orleans. Carriages rolled through the narrow streets of the French Quarter, loaded with ladies in crinolines gowns.

You could hardly get a table in any of the famous restaurants. Tables — padlocked the doors at 8 o'clock at night. Entrance by reservation only.

In the crowded streets, the hungry tourists stood around howling like Jean LaFitte's merry pirates.

WE HAD DINNER at Brennan's. Pompano en papillote — a delicious fish cooked with herbs in a paper sack. Little crayfish with sharp remoulade sauce. Fresh Louisiana strawberries.

New Orleans has more pirate rendezvous spots than any city in America. It is a very heady experience to sit exactly where Jean LaFitte plotted how to intercept and board a rich merchant ship, all awash with pieces-of-eight.

THE NICE THING about New nan's Pompano en papillote — Orleans is that you can do this almost anywhere. Nearly every restaurant or drinking den was once frequented by the pirate LaFitte.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Strange Coincidence

HOLLYWOOD — Strange thing about the death of Hope Emerson, subject of one of Ralph Edwards' most poignant "This Is Your Life" episode: I had invited Hope, one of my closest friends in Hollywood, to attend a party just a week earlier. Her housekeeper told me, "She isn't here — she went to Phoenix to look over some property she just bought."

A few nights later, I entered Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital for surgery ("slight," my surgeon told me ahead of time. And it was slight, until I started coming OUT of his "slight" surgery on my deviated septum!).

THE NIGHT I entered the hospital, I learned Hope was also there. I phoned her room and she sounded cheerful. That was Thursday. Before I left, the following Sunday, I phoned every day and talked to her. She was cheerful right to the hour I left. She thanked me for some flowers I had sent. She died that night.

I don't believe my friend Hope ever recovered from the death of her devoted mother, Josephine who was also Hope's partner in the old days of vaudeville. The devotion between these two, of course, was the subject of the Edwards show. And here's the strange part: Hope died on the seventh anniversary of Josephine's passing.

DOROTHY PROVINE, distaff star of Warner-TV's "The Alaskans," is being shuffled over to star in a new series, same studio: "The Roaring '20s." This gal will never get out of period costumes if this keeps up. She's also set to star in a Warner movie, another takeoff on the '20s, "High Button Shoes," to be produced by her best beau, Buddy Bregman.

Hedy Lamarr, who said in her divorce suit against W. Howard Lee of Texas that she needed money, turned down a tempting $10,000 to topline ONE single, solitary "U. S. Steel Hour." Her Page One publicity has also put her right up front in The Big Push for the role of the Empress of China in Jerry Wald's movie, "The Heiress," chief competition for the part being Myrna Loy, Joan Crawford and Bette Davis.

BOB MAXWELL's new series for MGM-TV, "House of Mystery," is described by the writer as being "more occult than mysterious." The weekly segments will be hosted by Dan O'Hertli, who will also star in several.

Chuck Walters' dandy direction of MGM's "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" made Sylvia Fine Kaye feel fine. That's why Mrs. Kaye wants him to direct her husband's first TV special, although you may rest assured Danny's best bits will be steered as heretofore, by Sylvia herself.

THIS CURRENT pre-election recession (is there one?) — anyway, Walter Slezak says it's rough on a psychiatrist's sidekick of his, because all the doctor's patients with money problems have run out of the problem!

Mrs. Charles Black took a dim view of the long queue of children lined up to see "Suddenly, Last Summer" outside a movie theatre in the Bay Area of California. She phoned the management to blast 'em for admitting moppets to one of Hollywood's most adult movies. The management mollified the lady by explaining the children were there, not to attend the Tennessee Williams show, but to see a special matinee of a 1939 Shirley Temple movie, "Susannah of the Mounties." Mrs. Black said, "Good, I may even bring my own children," and hung up. Manager's sudden afterthought, to ticket-taker: "What's Shirley Temple's married name?" Ticket-taker: "Mrs. Charles Black." Manager: "Oh."

THE FOLKS at Fox are fearful over what'll happen if Hope Lange, Don Murrys estranged mate, careens into the studio commissary one of these bright noontimes in May and discovers Don breaking bread with another studio contract player, his new love, Dolores Michael. As in: "There'll be more than bread broken!"

U-I producer Bob Arthur is having an awful time trying to tag a top director (and he wants Only The Best! to guide Gina Lollobrigida and Rock Hudson through their "Come Next Spring" love scene, I'm told Gina's "reputation" for being difficult in Metros "Go Naked in the World" has preceded her to the Valley lot.

TONY RANDALL'S Monday Malaise: "Show me an actor who isn't egotistical and I'll show you an actor who's about to be dropped by his studio and is looking for a new agent!"

The Big Secret behind those "Absolutely No Visitors!" signs on the "High Time" set at Fox has something to do with the plot. The studio doesn't want it out, but the script has teenager Yvonne Craig making The Big Play for Bing Crosby, who was 56 Monday. . . Happy birthday, Bing — you don't look it! . . . Speaking of The Groucher, my favorite line from cigar-smoking Ken Murray's "Life on a Pogo Stick," a biography-abrim with funnies, is: "I walked the floor with Crosby at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital the night Gary (Bing's eldest) was born. That's really the hard way to collect your cigars."

NORMAN TAUROG broke a tooth while reading the script for Elvis Presley's new movie, "GI Blues," the one saluting Sir Swivel's restoration to civility. Director Taugro wasn't angry about anything, he just happened to be chewing on a pencil while perusing the pages.

Six-foot-four-forever Forrest Tucker and three of the chorines measuring five-foot now touring with him in "The Music Man" are rehearsing a nightclub act for Las Vegas — for when the show finally folds, if it ever does. The way those ticket-wickets are swingin' it doesn't look as though it ever will fold.

FUN IN THE SUN

Duc Facing Toughest Workouts

By GEORGE LAINE

If you want to find out just how good a group is, book 'em into the Sportsman.

If they can conquer the oblong shape of the room, the constant yammering of crowds and the noise from Andreas Road, they figure to be something pretty exceptional.

YOU ALREADY KNEW that the Colleen Bruce and Bernard Duo had something special going for them during their stint at the Signature Room here.

In a totally different environment, they still continue to sparkle, still wield a sort of fairy wand in their control of the room.

They are exceptional. I don't know more than a couple of entertainment acts who'd even try to last more than a night in the highly - vocal, thoroughly-animated Sportsman.

IN A WAY, HOWEVER, you could almost figure on them to do just what they're doing.

In the Signature Room, they dealt a rapid-fire, close - order assortment of songs that embodied the gamut in musical modes. They sang so long that it was once reported that the Child Labor Law authorities were investigating on behalf of Colleen.

In the Sportsman, they do it roughly the same way. They work at their job, entertaining the Sportsman crowds. (Last night, for instance, the crowd included some "tough" customers - people who have to be sold. They got sold in a hurry.)

THERE ARE SOME fairly obvious reasons for this successful sell on the part of the pair.

In the first place, Colleen—who is only 23 but who has at least a normal 10 year's work behind her—presents her usual pretty picture and unusual vocal attitudes.

In the second place, Bernard gets ample opportunity to bring into play all of the multitudinous aspects of a career bordering on two decades in entertainment.

BOTH OF THEM sing their heads off in this current Sportsman stand. They have to.

Colleen has weathered appearances in such out of the way places as Alaska and TV. (She also won a couple of beauty contests when she was only a couple of years younger and that facet is readily apparent in this stand.)

Bernard has played Argentina and Alaska, not to mention the British West Indies, Mexico City, Acapulco and a gang more.

THE NET PRODUCT of all of this concerted experience—brought into focus in a single teaming magnificently wrought by Jack Kurtze of Beverly Hills — is a show that swings from start to stop, from first chorus to end cadenza.

There has to be some fairly impressive things glowing in the future for this pair. They've got good taste, a good flair for the humorous and the dramatic, inbred perseverance and an ability to make people love them.

They've also got professionalism—a vastly overused word—and that couldn't hurt 'em at all.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: You better plan to see the Pepe Callahan opening in the Biltmore Hotel's Garden Room tonight. The big reason has to be that Pepe, who summered with us year-long residents last annum, will be facing a fairly long-range stand here—most of it in company with Matt Dennis, the showman's showman, the composer's composer and the piano-player's piano-player.

COLLEEN BRUCE AND BERNARD, currently featured in the Sportsman Club, draws crowds for the wide variety and lengthy stands in their musical outings each night. Both have repertoires that include "hundreds of songs" and can play virtually any request.

Indian Wells Has Pow Wow

There was only a crescent moon in an almost starless sky, but the rosy glow of overhead lights lent an authentic redskin touch to Indian Wells Country Club's big Pow Wow party Saturday night. In bright contrast floodlights made adjoining greens look like vast velvety green rugs. Great bison heads were hung in the trees and up on the dark hillside was a lighted horse and Indian rider.

The crowd of around 600 gathered for the alfresco party, with many in western and Indian attire. Desi Arnaz had his orchestra occupied a floating bandstand in the lake, and the film star's sons Ricky and Desi Jr., beat the drums. There was a tepee on the bandstand and a totem pole on shore.

Miniature wigwams decorated the tables where members and guests enjoyed a steak and sweet corn dinner, served chuckwagon style.

In the crowd were the Eddie Susallas, John Curcis, Milt Hicks and Jimmie Rogers, Dick Snidemanns, Lou Manseaus, Kent Hayes, Eric Staintons, Maynard Laswells, Chauncey Needhams, R. P. Two Hundred Couples Attend L.A. Rotary Honeymoon Here

Approximately 200 couples attended the Silver Anniversary Honeymoon Party of the Los Angeles Rotary Club at the El Mirador Hotel Friday through Sunday.

The anniversary was the 25th year of the annual function, which began in 1935. Headed by president Laurence Greiner, and party chairman Lars Ott, the party was an extended "ladies day," with members and their wives in a full round of activities ranging from dinner dancing, to bowling and golfing. Other activities included card parties, shuffleboard tournaments, and horse-show contests.

The Silverado Fiesta dinner dance was held Friday evening, with costume optional. On Saturday evening, the group held its formal dance. A series of formal cocktail parties began Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hillman hosted early arrivals, and Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. George Wooster hosted a pre-honeymoon cocktail party in their El Mirador bungalow.

Install Officers for Brawley VFW Auxiliary

Around Town . . . with Hildy Crawford

Somebody remarked this weekend . . . that with so many costume affairs . . . it would be funny to make a mistake and show up at a party wearing the wrong costume . . . but I didn't see any westerners or Indians at the Ranch Club luau . . . or any beachcombers at the Pow Wow . . . and garb was sedate enough at the Tennis Club's Closing Party . . . at the City of Hope's Donor Dinner at El Mirador . . . and last night's Desert Dinner Club at Palm Springs Riviera . . . Best costumes . . . aside from the Arizona Indian dancers at the Pow Wow and the hula girls at the Ranch Club . . . were Sally Eilers Morse's muumuu and Mousie Powell's blonde Indian . . .

There's something sweetly sad about closing parties . . . and knowing that when the lights went off that night at Tennis Club they would be off until next fall . . . lent a poignant touch to their Sunday night Steak Fry . . . It was an indoors party . . . with dancing to the music of Tony Rose and his orchestra . . . but the steaks were served out on the terrace . . . where ribboned maypoles carried out the May Day theme . . .

Preceding dinner . . . Auntie Pearl McManus and Sally Colegate hosted a cocktail party for the Polo Club . . . taking over the Venetian Room . . . and the party was seated in the balcony for dinner . . .

The John Pikes of Redlands hosted a table of friends . . . and the just returned Mary and Allan Jones were a foursome with the Doyle Cottons . . . Even though they've been away the Joneses have continued their crusade for the Animal Shelter . . . appearing on coast-to-coast telecasts and being interviewed for two magazine articles . . . Allan drove home bringing two Tennessee Walking horses home with him . . .

The Godfrey Kings . . . who had hosted a party at their home the night before . . . had with them Mrs. Harry Hooker and her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes . . . of Arizona. The Billy Maloufs hosted a table which included . . . the Earl Parade . . . was back for the closing party and used John Pike and Allan Maclean as foils for one of her songs . . .

Lionel Steinberg is back from Washington D. C. . . . where he attended the same dinner Phil Regan did (Senatorial and Congressional) and heard Truman speak . . .

Lionel says Harry S. attended the California cocktail party . . . looking in fine fettle . . . and when someone asked him why he didn't run against Nixon . . . he retorted "I just might do that" . . . pointing out that he's younger than Adenaur . . .

There were orchid leis for the ladies . . . tropical drinks and an array of cantonese foods . . . at the Ranch Club Luau Friday night . . . with Joyce and Noel Clarke there to greet members and guests who packed the Club . . .

A ceiling of flowers with fishnet on the walls . . . decorated the clubhouse . . . and Danny Kuaana and his troupe of South Sea Islanders were there to sing and dance . . .

At the Clarkes' table were Sally Eilers and Holly Morse . . . Ray Ryan, Bruce Cabot and Bill Gorman . . . Harry and Zena Reinhardt . . . Winsome Courtney, Cy Bartlett . . .

Clea Williams sang . . . as did April Ames and Duke Mitchell (he was emcee) . . .

Sixth Graders Have Slumber Party

A group of classmates from Katherine Finch's sixth grade, enjoyed a slumber party which Pamela Hern hosted Friday night at the home of her mother Mrs. Jacqueline Warner at 2222 West Acacia.

The girls spent the evening dancing and playing games and had a late restaurant - style breakfast on Saturday morning.

Laurie Needleman, Sandy Bedwell, Jessica Gardner, Marty Coffman, Ruth Hearst.

Connie Stevens

'Hawaiian Eye' Star Brains Too

By RICK Du Brow
UPI Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Miss Connie Stevens, all of 21, is not only one of the stars of ABC-TV's "Hawaiian Eye" series, but also is one of the brains behind its creation.

Miss Stevens, a petite blue-eyed blonde who plays singer Cricket Blake in the show, had just been put under contract to Warner Bros. when she started a campaign for a series about Hawaii.

The actress explained:

"I WENT UNDER contract after doing a 'Maverick,' and producer Bill Orr told me they were thinking of putting me into a series."

"Well, I started bugging Orr and kept on bugging him about why he didn't make a series about Hawaii. I had lived and worked there and loved it. A couple of months later, Bill saw me and said, 'You're gonna be in a Hawaiian show.'"

"I almost flipped. It just shows: Bugging pays off."

MISS STEVENS, who was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., of Italian, Irish, English and Mohican Indian extraction, said she's grateful for what the series has done for her—but she thinks being an actress is "ridiculous."

"You get up at 5 o'clock in the morning, spend two hours getting made up and then wait around a couple of the morning to do a couple of shots," she pouted.

"THEN, JUST WHEN you're getting in the mood, you break for lunch. You go to eat in the commissary, and it's always noisy and full of bedlam. Then you work until 6."

"If you have dates, you have to be in before midnight because you have to get up so early. You take a bath before going to bed, feed the dogs—I have three of them—and it's close to 1 a.m. before you're asleep."

MISS STEVENS' desire is to do more night club dates and recordings. Her singing was the reason Warner Bros. signed her in the first place. But now "Hawaiian Eye" has been renewed for another year, and she has another 39 shows to do.

"If you do night club singing, at least you can live during the day and spend more time doing what you want to do," she said.

A VERSATILE YOUNG lady, Miss Stevens just wrote a song entitled "I Wanna Be Sexy" because she is constantly teased on the show about being too young for the private eye heroes.

"I'd also love to sell real estate," she said. "I made $8,000 selling my house. Land is like diamonds. It'll be around for a long time."

MISS STEVENS, whose real name is Conchetta Ann Ingolia, got her first important professional break when Jerry Lewis chose her for his leading lady in the film "Rock-a-Bye Baby."

"Just five or six years ago," she said, "I stood for two hours outside the New York Paramount Theater to get Jerry's autograph, but the crowd was so thick I never got through."

McCormick Blanks Braves

Dodgers Lose, 6-5 To Cincy

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
That $60,000 bonus the Giants gave teen-ager Mike McCormick is paying off four years later and 3,000 miles away.
It was back in 1956 that the Giants signed the 18-year-old high school and American Legion ace from Arcadia, Calif., who had been groomed to be a big league pitcher since he was seven years old. At the time, they predicted he would some day become a major league star.
It took four years but all the signs today are that the 6-foot, 2-inch, 195-pound left-hander has come into his own. He turned in his third straight victory Monday night when he pitched the Giants to a 5-0 win that snapped the Milwaukee Braves' four-game winning streak.

A CROWD OF 41,943 saw McCormick turn in this third brilliant effort at Candlestick Park. In three victories there the California kid has pitched two shutouts and yielded a total of one run and nine hits.
The victory moved the second-place Giants to within one game of the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates, whose nine-game winning streak was ended, 4-3, by the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-5, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-7, in other National League games.

THE CLEVELAND Indians scored a 3-2 victory over the Washington Senators and the Baltimore Orioles "walked" to an 11-6 decision over the Chicago White Sox in American League activity.
Carlton Willey matched zeroes with McCormick for five innings but Jim Davenport hit his fourth homer to give the Giants a 1-0 lead in the sixth. The Giants added four clutching runs in the eighth with the aid of an error by shortstop Johnny Logan and Del Crandall's second passed ball of the game. Willey, who suffered his first loss, fanned nine before giving way to a pinch-hitter.
Ed Bailey's three-run eighth-inning double off World Series relief hero Larry Sherry provided the Reds with their second win in 10 games. Jim O'Toole received credit for the triumph although Raul Sanchez and Bill Henry succeeded him. Jim Gilliam and Charlie Neal homered for the Dodgers and Billy Martin connected for the Reds.

Putting winner for men was Washburn, with 34, and women, Phyllis Crickett, 36. Mrs. Jimmy Rogers won the "most putts" award.

THINGS ARE LOOKING UP for the chances of the United States in the Olympic Games at Rome this summer. In the past two weeks, records went down the drain as Dyrrol Burleson of Oregon, ran the mile in 3:58.6, best ever for an American; John Thomas of Boston U. high-jumped 7 feet 11 1/2 inches and Bill Nieder, ex-Kansas U. star, heaved the shot 63 feet, 11 1/2 inches in the Drake Relays last weekend, all new records.

U.S. Decathlon Hopes Boom

Rafer Johnson Rapidly Gaining Old Time Form

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Fears that the United States might not be well represented in decathlon competition at the Rome Olympic Games were dispelled today as Rafer Johnson neared top form for the 10-event competition.
Johnson, holder of the U. S. record of 8302 points, has recovered from a back injury suffered last fall in an automobile accident and is gradually increasing his work in decathlon events.
Two of the world's three top decathlon men Monday appeared before the Southern California Track and Field Writers and Coaches Assn. Joining Johnson, who ranks second in the world to Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov, was Nationalist China's C. K. Yang. Both Johnson and Yang are coached by UCLA's Elvin (Ducky) Drake.
The modest Chinese athlete let Johnson and Drake talk about him and only expressed the hope that he soon would recover from a shoulder injury that has bothered him in throwing events.
"I think Yang is capable of beating Kuznetsov's best mark (8357 points), and also beating him," Johnson said. "It will take around 8300 points, possibly 8400, to win at Rome."

Calumet's Entry Favored Today In Derby Trial

LOUISVILLE, — (UPI) — Twelve thoroughbreds battle for a starter's berth in Saturday's running of the Kentucky Derby in the $15,000 Derby Trial today at Churchill Downs.
And when the dust settles behind them after the mile race most are expected to be declared out of America's premier horse race, reducing the probably Kentucky Derby field to about 12.
Calumet Farm entered three horses in the 33rd running of the event and the entry looms as a 2-1 favorite. Trainer Jimmy Jones and his father, Ben, before him always have used the trial as the final proving grounds for its Kentucky Derby candidates.
Citation, Hill Gail and Tim Tam each won both races while Whirlaway and Ponder were second in the trial but wound up draped with roses after the Kentucky Derby five days later. Pensive did not start in the prep race while Iron Leige, the seventh Kentucky Derby winner owned by the famed stable, was out of the money in the trial.
Cuvier Relic, with Jack Sellers up, looms as second choice at 7-2 with Spring Broker the third choice at 4-1.

Palmer Plays Collins Today For Top Cash

All Even at Houston With 280s for 72; Go 18 in Play-Off

HOUSTON, Tex. — (UPI) — Masters champion Arnold Palmer was sure of at least $3,400 more to add to his $44,000 plus bankroll today as he and Bill Collins got set to tee off for an extra 18 holes to decide the winner of the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament.
Palmer and Collins wound up the fourth round of the tourney the same way they ended the first round — in a deadlock. They began Thursday by burning up the 7,122-yard Memorial Park course with six-under par 66's.
But the strain of competition was beginning to tell Monday in what was to have been the final round. Collins, of Crystal River, Fla., shot a three-over-par 75 and Palmer, who plays out of Ligonier, Pa., carded a 73, one over par.

FOR EACH IT WAS the worst round of the tourney, and each ended the regulation distance with 280's for the 72 holes.
Today's playoff will decide who gets the coveted trophy and first prize money of $5,300. The playoff loser will get $3,400.
When the deadlock for first place was announced, both Palmer and Collins agreed there was too much at stake for a sudden death playoff, but they left it up to tourney officials.
Collins clung to a slim two-stroke lead going into Monday's round, but said he "felt terrible all day" and had trouble with his drives. He bogeyed the third, seventh and ninth holes and went into the back nine only a stroke ahead.

ON THE 11TH he missed a three-putt, but came back for birdies on the five-par 13th and on the 16th. On the 17th he saw a spike mark too late and it deflected his 18-foot putt away from the cup, causing him to make a bogey five.

It was there that Palmer caught up with him. Palmer himself was in less than championship form, three-putting four holes — the 3rd, 10th, 12th and 13th.
Jack Fleck, who won the Phoenix Open from Collins in a playoff earlier this year, wound up Monday with a 72 and a 281 total for third place and prize money of $2,300.
Antaeus Richard Crawford of Houston, and pros Doug Sanders of Miami Beach and Gary Player of Johannesburg, South Africa, tied for fourth place with 284 total. Sanders and Player each earned $1,800.

GOP Central Committee to Fight Saund

Fraudulent Voter
Registration to Compose Charge

EL CENTRO — Yvonne Smith, chairman of the Imperial County Republican Central Committee, disclosed yesterday that the committee will challenge Congressman D. S. Saund's June 7 primary election vote on the grounds of alleged fraudulent voter registration.

Her announcement followed disclosure by newspapers here that Saund no longer is a resident of the Imperial Valley although he gave a Westmoreland address on his candidacy papers.

THE ADDRESS, 392 South Center street, is the home of Steve Horvath who has occupied the house for more than a year. It is owned by a man named Curley Fox. Horvath told reporters that Saund does not live there. However, a man on duty at Saund's fertilizer business in Westmoreland claimed that Saund does reside there.

"It will come as a surprise and shock to residents all through the 29th district that Saund no longer lives in the district that he represents at Washington," Miss Smith said, commenting on the disclosures.

"ANY ORDINARY voter would be challenged under similar conditions, and we feel that a congressman should be entirely above reproach in compliance with registration and election laws. For that reason the Central Committee will challenge his vote at the June primary election."

Reached by telephone in Washington, Saund told reporters that he once lived at the 392 South Center address "and that is my legal residence until I change it."

He declined to answer a question of whether he has a home in the 29th district, repeating only that the Westmoreland house is his legal residence.

Nitrogen, Citrus Don't Mix

Summer applications of nitrogen to grapefruit trees in Coachella Valley should be avoided because of detrimental effect on fruit quality according to Dr. W. W. Jones, Horticulturist of the Citrus Experiment Station.

Research work of Dr. Jones' has repeatedly demonstrated that summer fertilization of citrus makes the fruit more pearly and coarser in texture, increases the thickness of the skin, decreases the sugar content, and imparts a green color to the skin.

Dr. Jones suggested mature grapefruit trees should receive two pounds of nitrogen per tree which should be applied in December or January in Coachella Valley. Leaf analysis is helpful in determining whether the needs of the tree have been supplied and will provide a basis for increasing or decreasing the nitrogen applied the subsequent winter.

A manual entitled "Leaf and Soil Analysis in Citrus Orchards" is available for a charge of 75 cents. Forms for ordering this manual are available from the Agricultural Extension Service office, Room 7, Post Office Building, Riverside.

Western Shows 25c Dividend

Western Air Lines' board of directors today declared a regular quarterly dividend of $0.25 a share, payable May 18 to shareholders of record May 9.

The dividend, announced at the annual stockholders meeting by Terrell C. Drinkwater, Western president, is the second payment this year, the tenth successive year of cash dividend payments to shareholders.

Drinkwater estimated that Western earned approximately $24,000 or $0.73 a share, in the first quarter with per-share earnings based on the 1,192,275 shares outstanding on March 31, 1960. Western was one of the few airlines to show a profit in the first quarter, he said.

7 INJURED, ONE SERIOUSLY IN RASH OF AUTO MISHAPS

MECCA — One person received major injuries, and six others minor injuries in three automobile collisions in this area Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Major injury was sustained by Mrs. Gladys Juanita Smith, 31, when the car in which she was riding was struck by a car driven by David Franklin Berke, of P.O. Box 56, Indio, at Lincoln Street and Avenue 68 near here at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

MRS. SMITH WAS taken to Casa Hospital. Minor injuries resulted to Berke, George Clay Smith, 32, driver of the Smith car, and the two Smith children, Beverly Anne, 11, and Kenneth, 9. The CHP reported Berke will be cited for failure to yield right of way to a vehicle first in an uncontrolled intersection.

Minor injury was received by Patricio Benitez, 49, of Coachella, when his car went off the Van Buren Avenue near Avenue 48, the patrol said. Benitez told officers he was forced off the road by four youths in another car.

AND FALLING ASLEEP at the wheel resulted in minor injuries to Gilbert Ruiz, 39, of Mecca, and his passenger, Lupe Garcia, 36, of El Centro, at 5:30 a.m. Sunday.

The accident occurred on Highway 111 near Park Road in Mecca when Ruiz fell asleep and hit a culvert guard, the CHP said.

Don't harvest your winter apples too early, orchard experts say. Apples which ripen on the tree have better quality and color and store much better.
